Preface

This information, which has been collected over the past 25 years, is for the education of our descendents. The history of the Boward family shows the hardships and joys most American families experience. Copies of original documents and transcriptions of others are within. I have tried to point the way with assumptions when information was limited, but all information should be looked at closely if not documented with proof. I give the source location and notes where possible, for the next genealogist in the family. I hope that this work will give relatives a sense of pride. Our forefathers were here at the beginnings of this country, fought bravely through many wars, and lived during good and hard times.

The program used for printing is Family Tree Maker. It is printed by generations. When a + sign is before the number assigned to a name, then you know that more information on that person is in the next generation. Look for that same number in the next generation. Hard copies will be limited due to cost and quality. Copies on zip disc or cd are available by contacting Robert Boward, 416 E. Second St., Dixon, IL 61021

We all have special ancestors that we think of. It maybe a parent or grandparent, a great great aunt who gave you cookies as a child. Think of these people while reading and share stories with your own children and grandchildren. Family traditions and individual idiosyncrasies give life to these pages. Enjoy

"As you look toward the future, always remember the treasures of our past. Every generation stands on the shoulders of the generation that came before. Jealously guard the values and principles of our heritage. They did not come easy."
----- Ronald Reagan

A few notes from memory: The Story….

The Boward family name comes from the French name Bauerdt, Bower, and the German name Baur, Bauer, with the meaning of farmer. Derivatives of this name could be Bomward, Baumward, and variations with e, or t. Example of these names would be Bowerd, Bowert, Bowart, Bomwert, Baumwert, Baward, etc…The name is a commonly used with farmer and was probably adopted from this during the surname inventing time. The family came from the Rhine River area, stretching from Belgium to Switzerland. The Surname spelling would change according to the language spoken of that area. In the History of the area, we find that country boundaries changed with wars and treaties. The Thirty Years' War 1618-1648, a war beginning in Germany between Protestants and Catholics and later involving nearly all of Europe. These conflicts resulted in the burning of churches of the loser. Each side would counter and beat the other, burning churches and evicting the residents of the losing denomination. In the long run, both sides lost with history of their past in ashes. Many people went to Belgium, England and Switzerland. Fifty Thousand of these persecuted refugees were welcomed into Pennsylvania between 1681 and 1725.

We find in England the Boward name in the 1400's. The name was changed to Bowert about 1865 by the Government. (see doc)

Our American family came in two waves. The first was Heinrich Bauerdt in 1743 and a Michael Bomward in 1754. Then in 1820's two brothers Francis and Peter came and settled in Stateline , Pa area. These were the french – german speaking Boward not to be confused with the English that could be found in New York.

Heinrich / Henry came aboard the ship Frances & Elizabeth that left Rotterdam to Cowes, England (a small island off the coast). There they got the supplies and more passengers and made the journey to the colonies. They had to swear allegiance to the English King in order to travel to this part of England. The loyalty oath was done in Philadelphia upon landing. Heinrich / Henry lived in Philadelphia for a few years marrying Ann Marie and giving birth to the first of the children. They traveled westerly and by 1760 were in the western part of Maryland called Elizabeth Town. Henry was a farmer according to his inventory at his death in 1771. Henry or his son Henry Jr. had a brick kiln in the 1770's which was used to make the bricks for the first Evangelical Lutheran Church in Elizabethtown. This kiln was located at the south edge of the old Hagerstown Fairgrounds property. This same kiln was owned in 1806 by George Bowert, son of Michael and grandson of Henry Sr. George was killed by the explosion of a cannon during a celebration of the battle of New Orleans and the brick kiln was owned by George's wife. The Boward family was involved with the brick factory till late 1890's. Four Boward children were in the Revolutionary War. Michael was with George Washington at Valley Forge during that bad winter of 1777-8; Valentine was missing in action; Leonard fought for three years then moved south and became a Baptist minister, and Henry Jr who stayed near Elizabeth town as a volunteer in local forces. The three: Michael, Valentine, and Leonard were in the German Regiment of Maryland/Pennsylvania, which was the first organized unit of the Continental Military. Baron Von Steuben was the instructor in military training. Interesting note, George Washington wanted German Americans around him who did not speak English so that he could talk military plans to other officers without worrying about spys.

Michael Bomward came from Alsace France to the Pennsylvania colony in 1754. We find his loyalty oath and then nothing.

Frances and Peter (we think from around Nancy, France) came to America and went straight to the western part of Pennsylvania very close to Hagerstown (name gradually changed from Elizabethtown, and officially changed by legislation in1829). The family spilt to Greencastle and Stateline, but stayed in the Pennsylvania side. I call the descendants the Pennsylvania Bowards and Henry's family the Maryland Bowards.

This book will be separated into the two sections with two indices; the Maryland branch and the Pennsylvania Branch. Please note that step children are not included because of software program used rather than the intent of the author.

1. Henry1 Boward was born Abt. 1718 in Poss. Rhine Valley [Alsace, France to Baden, Germany], and died Bef. 24 Apr 1771 in Frederick Co., Md (Source: V. L. Abt. 1748. She was born Abt. 1730 in [calc from census], and died Aft. 1790 in MD census for 1790.

Notes for Henry Boward:
[Most likely Henry and family came across The Great Wagon Trail. After 1744, from Philadelphia through Lancaster and York Counties down to Frederick County Maryland. It is my belief that the children were born in this area. We know Henry, Jr., Leonard and Peter were born in Elizabethtown. So from 1745 to 1757 the Boward family could have been in Western Maryland or Pennsylvania. Though the name could have been Baur, Bower, Bauer, Bahr, Bauerdt, Bomward, or any with a t or d added. ex:...Baurt, Baurd, Bowert, Bowerd...etc...]

[note: I have no proof Henry Bauerdt is same person, husband of Ann that died in 1771 in MD. Another person who arrived at Philadelphia in 1754 was Hans Michell Bomward. Bauerdt meant farmer and that person could have changed his name to Henry Farmer. Both people were not found after a few years at Philadelphia. I also assumed he was the patriarch of the family because of his age....I will continue to assume him this way till proof otherwise]

Notes for Leonard Boward:
Leonard Boward vs. Leonard Bowars/Bowers Are they the same?

Boward b. 1760 in Eliz.town, MD--- s. 1776 Census of Elizabeth Hundred, MD
Bowars b. fall 1760 reared in Hagerstown (Eliz.Town)----- s. Pension of L. Bowars

Boward enlisted 17 May 1778 Hagerstown (e.n. was Eliz.town till 1814)--s. Muster Rolls of MD
Bowars enlisted 17 May 1778 Hagerstown---s. Pension of L. Bowars

Boward served under Col. Otho Williams-----s. Muster Rolls of MD vol.2
Bowars served under Col. Otho Williams----s. Pension of L. Bowars

Boward brothers names John Henry, Michael, Valentine, Peter Bowars sons John, Valentine, Henry, Leonard, David

Boward after war, name never appears.
Bowars/Bowers moved to Carter Co., Tenn became Baptist minister.

I think they are the same person and will continue to include line with Boward genealogy.

In the Will of George Bowers, Washington Co. MD dated 1782 the eldest son Leonard is named. Although there is no Bower family in the 1776 Elizabeth Hundred Census & (no George listed in either family, which is German custom for naming). The Boward father is Henry who died 1771 & both lines carry that name down.

She was well known throughout Hagerstown and the vicinity. Surviving are one daughter Mrs Amelia Stouffer, 117 E. Franklin St and one son, John Thomas, who resided in Baltimore for many years; fourteen grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren, and four great great grandchildren. For half a century, Mrs Thomas rendered conscious service in the community as a capable and trustworthy midwife, serving in this capacity as it never had been served and never will again. As during the previous century the celebrated midwife of Paris, Madame Boivin, rivaled professional obstetricians in the range and the success of her practice, so this rare and helpful woman, in the active period of hr career, in the opinion of many was present with more women in childbirth than all the physicians of Hagerstown. Not only did she render this special service, but when distress disease and death laid heavy hand, Aunt Liz was the helper, her responsive, sympathetic heart consoled, her tender hands ministered, or, as was often the case prepared the body for final rest.). She married Frederick Thomas 11 Sep 1839 in Washington Co, MD (Source: Washington Co., MD Marriages 1799 - 1860 by Dale & Debrah Morrow 2000, p.109.). [e.n. Michael m. Margaret when he was about 19yrs. We find in the 1860 census Michael 33 Margaret 34 Catherine 11, Sarah J.9, John F. 6, James W 3 and William 5/12. We have the marriage record of Michael and Isabelle as 15 May 1862; therefore Isabelle was the second wife and was mother to Fannie, Margaret and Estella. I am not sure as if Margaret died or divorced Michael, but since the 1880 census has Michael 43, Isabelle 35, John 13, Wm 12 James 11, Fanny 5, Margaret 4; I would think the small children would have gone with Margaret. We will assume Margaret died between 1860 to 1862.]

Charles Edward5 Boward (Andrew4, Michael3, Michael2, Henry1) was born 16 Jan 1845 in Hagerstown, Washington Co., MD, and died 29 Aug 1903 in Hagerstown, Washington Co., MD (Source: (1) *Washington County Maryland Cemetery Records Vol.7 edited by Dale W. Buried Rose Hill Cem Section I Plot 212 N1/2 Hagerstown, MD [plot # from Rose Hill records]., (2) Hagerstown Daily Mail, 29 Aug 1903 p.3 part 1, Charles Edward Boward, Pennsylvania Ave, formerly a policeman with many an exciting experience and more recently blinded as a result of an accident on a warship at Newport News, Md is dead and his taking off was very sudden. He was for long years color bearer of the Hagerstown Light Infantry, serving at least 15years. He was a lime burner by occupation, later a carpenter, his father for so long a time running the old Boward Lime Kiln on N. Jonathan St. He was on the police on two different occasions, 5 and 8 years, 14 years in all and many a desperate conflict he had. He had a good nerve, lots of pluck, and was a strong man, and the consequence was that he had his hands full when he had the N. Jonathan st Beat, once while overpowered by a crowd, being badly done up. After he left the force he went to Newport News and a piece of steel got into his eye. One perished and the other went the same way and he found that he could not work. He went to Baltimore on several occasions for treatment but nothing could save him. It was after that he got his chair and box and became the first man in this town to ever sit regularly for aid. He was a monument of patience and resignation as he sat, a wonderful picture for those who remembered what an active man he was. He never seemed any thing but cheerful which was all the remarkable even when his old enemies jeered at him reminding him of his affliction. Mr Boward returned yesterday evening from Williams grove feeling badly and during the night he was taken seriously ill with acute indigestion from which he was a sufferer for a long time. His heart was affected causing death. His wife and daughter Omo left the room about 7pm and returned in a few minutes to find him in a state of collapse. Mr. Boward was aged 59 years and the son of Andrew J. Boward. He was born in Hagerstown and worked for 18 years at the old sash factory. He was a Democrat in politics.[continued later]., (3) Hagerstown Daily Mail, 29 Aug 1903 p.3 part 2, ...His wife was a Miss Kuhn, of this city, who survives with the following children: Mrs Carrie Opling, Mrs Ethel Rider, Gertrude, Oma, of this city; Frank of Steelton, Pa; Edward, Norman, Dorsey, and Ross all at home; sisters Mrs Alice Elifritz of Ohio; Mrs Nettie Welsh and Mrs Florence Earp of this city.). injury., (2) Hagerstown Daily Mail, 16 Jul 1917 p1 c4, Obit: William W. Boward, Civil War Veteran was for the past twenty years a bailiff at the Court House, was the victim of a accident this morning which resulted fatally. The mishap occurred about 7:45. Mr Boward was crossing Potomac St at Howard at the time and one of Bester's Ice wagons was coming along at a walk. Absent mindedly, Mr Boward stepped into the path of the wagon and in an effort to get out of the way became confused and stepped directly in the way. The tongue of the wagon knocked him down, but the horse did not step on him. A blood vessel in the head was strained and a hemorrhage of the brain resulted. His skull was fractured from the fall. Lawrence Ford was driving the wagon, which was in charge of Harry Crum. The wagon was not making any speed. Boward was removed to the home of his daughter, Mrs John Nichols, Maple Ave, but as his condition was serious he was taken to the hospital where he died within an hour and a half. The body was taken in charge by Watkins and Minnich, undertakers. Mr Boward was aged 73 years and well known. He was a veteran of the civil War serving with Co I 7th MD Regt. He enlisted in the fall of 1862 and served until the close of the War. He was a member of the Reno Post and was at one time a fireman on the Cumberland Valley Railroad. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs John Nichols and Mrs Geo. Rudy both of Hagerstown and a brother, Jacob of Polo, IL. Mr Boward recently returned from a visit to his brother. He was a widower, his wife dying a year ago. Justice Hartman went to the undertakers to view the body and will consult with State's Attorney Kaylor whether an inquest is necessary.). Buried Rose Hill Cem Section G Hagerstown, MD., (2) Hagerstown Daily Mail, 4 Oct 1927 p.12 c.1, Her neck broken, Miss Florence Boward, 50 years old, 131 North Cannon ave, was killed instantly at 6:30 pm last evening when struck by the automobile of Morris H. Haines. Robert Poet, Franklin St barber, told the coroner's jury that Miss Boward was crossing the Franklin St corner and walked into the left side of the auto and that apparently she was crossing from the south to the north side. Mr. Haines said he did not see Miss Boward until the fender hit her and that before he could stop, the back wheels passed over her. The injured woman was taken to the barber shop and was pronounced dead by Dr. Perry Prather who was summoned. Her neck was broken and she suffered a number of injuries about the body. After hearing the testimony, the jury exonerated Haines from all blame. It was not introduced as testimony, but persons knowing Miss Boward say she is extremely deaf. It was also learned that the street lights which had been lighted before were not at the time of the accident, because of wire trouble at other lights and that the current was cut off so the workmen might ascend the pole and fix the problem. Miss Boward is survived by three brothers Daniel, William, and James. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2pm at the house by Rev. G.I. Rider and burial in Rose Hill Cem.).

Officers said the body was first discovered by a railroad yardman in the heavily foliaged section behind Foundry St. They said a yardman found the body and notified police who in turn called the city officers. Acting County Medical Examiner Dr E. W. Ditto, III said the man had been dead about two weeks. Officers reported the Dr Ditto said the body was so badly decomposed the cause of death may never be certain. However the doctor ascertained that the dead man suffered a fractured left hip. City detectives said the relatively mild weather plus the seclusion of the spot where the corpse was found probably explained why the body had not been located earlier. Boward who recently been released from the Newton D. Baker VA Hospital in Martinsburg, had no fixed address. Many people knew him only as a man they would often see pulling a box along behind him on a cord. He was not employed. The area where the body was discovered is known as Academy Hill Junction and is at a railroad crossing near the rear of the R.D. McKee Hardware store. Boward was the son of Emanuel and Margaret (Springer) Boward. he was a veteran of WW I and was a house painter by trade. 1033 i. H. W.6 Boward, born Abt. 1878 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, MD; died 9 Nov 1901 in Shippensburg, Franklin Co, PA (Source: Hagerstown Daily Mail, 9 Nov 1901, H. W. Boward, a flagman in the employ of the W. M., met death at 3am this morning in the caboose of an extra freight train at Lurgan on the cutoff. Both legs were broken and he also sustained internal injuries. Boward lived a halfhour after the accident. According to the details the extra freight which was westbound had pulled on the siding at Lurgan to get orders when a P & R freight westbound came along and plunged into the rear of the extra. Boward had entered the caboose when the train entered the siding and was caught in a death trap. The big P & R engine plowed through the caboose crushing Boward against timbers and wrecking four cars. He was discovered shortly after by conductor Buffington of the extra and other members of the crew and removed to Shippensburg and attended by the company's physician. It was seen that he was beyond hope and after lingering in unconsciousness for a half hour death ensued. The cause of the accident is not known but reports have it that the Reading train was running ahead of the time. The track was blocked by the wrecked caboose and the Reading engine suffered some damage. Mr Boward was a son of James Boward residing in Pennsylvania Ave, aged about 24 years. His remains were brought for burial and will be brought to this city this afternoon. He is survived by his parents several brothers and sisters. Boward was employed in a livery stable here before going on the road. He boarded with Mr. Richard Everly, W. Church St. He worked at Cramer's Livery stable for some time.).

Notes for Rodney Eugene Boward II:
The Memories of Rodney Boward 1970-1980
I was a member of the corps from 1970-1980. I found this web site when out of curiosity I was looking to see if there was anything about the corp. It really brought back a lot of memories when I started reading about some of the other members of the corp. I don't know if any of you remember me or not, but I was given my nick name by a fellow member, Don Bernard. I was considered one of the old heads because of how long I had been with the corps at that time.

If I tried to put all of my memories on one page it could go on for a long time, so I will just name some things and see if anyone else can put a story with them. Here are a few: Being sent to find the set of TOGS keys to Summeral

Field, having to do drum details and playing a cadence so weird that the officers couldn't march to it, seeing "Casey" do his impression of I'm a little tea pot.

The originator of the infamous black straps that were used by the drum line for a short period of time was me. At that time we had a large enough corps to field two units and enough drummers to put out two separate lines at a time. We always considered ourselves to be the most radical of all the sections in the corps so I felt we needed to shake things up a little bit. That was when I came up with the idea of black straps, instead of white, to give the other line something that would make them different, and to piss off the administration. While I was making these straps the administration didn't know, and man you should have heard the uproar when they were finished and we wore them for the first time. It was like someone had dropped a bomb on the place. The drum major had a black strap also. I have a bunch of pictures of the line when we used them, unfortunately when the members of that line got out all of the straps went with them and were never seen again. Also I was responsible for the change in the style of the drum straps that the drum line uses now. That didn't go over to bad with the powers to be. I still have both of my straps, and sometimes if I really fell brave I will take out my sticks and attempt to play one of the old drum solos.

I guess that one my best memories was when the corps was performing a show for the Patriots Fife and Drum Corps. We had been practicing a drum solo that involved braking down a long roll to single strokes all the way to single beats. On the night that we attempted this we were doing a California type show that only had two snares and one bass drum. The other snare drummer was Rick Lunsford "AKA" "Cheeseburger" and myself. We were both so nervous because this had never been attempted by the line before. To make a long story short, when we came to this part of the solo it was absolutely perfect. I don't think Rick and I could have been any higher at that time. When we came to the last selection, "Drum and Guns," when the drum line goes off the stage we were going so fast that the drum major could hardly keep up with us. And then we received a standing ovation from the audience afterward, and let me tell you something, in this world there is nothing that will ever compare to that felling you get when you would nail a performance like we did that night.

On a lighter note, there was a muster that the corps had attended, I'm not sure exactly where it was, but after we had finished our official duties it was time to jam with everyone else for the remainder of the evening. Due to the amount of spirits that were consumed by myself and another drummer who shall remain nameless, we were sitting on a hill attempting to clear our heads before continuing with our fun. At this point the other person got the brilliant idea that it would be fun to roll down this long hill. When I looked over to see how this other person was doing he had rolled head over heals to the bottom of the hill, and was sprawled out in a state of complete bless. After bringing him back up to the top of the hill again mother nature called so he excused himself in order to take care of business. After about 30 to 45 minutes I began to wonder where this person had gotten off to. After conducting a search I discovered this person standing up in one of the portable latrines leaning against the wall passed out. To this day I have to wonder how we were able to make it back to where we were staying for the night.

On another occasion I can remember a tradition that whenever we would travel there was a group of individuals who would dress up in some sort of costumes. On one such trip the theme for this trip was the roaring 20's. To go along with this, several members purchased clothes and accessories that looked like something out of the God Father Movie. One person, Brian Moore, was decked out to look like a Mafia Boss,and everyone else in this group were his mob. I'll never forget the reaction that they got from people at the terminal when the elevator opened up at the airport and out stepped two henchmen, complete with violin cases, who stood on each side the elevator before the "God Father" Brian came out. The other passengers freaked out. Can you imagine trying to do something like that now.

The only other thing that I want to add is that if there are any type of reunions planned in the near future please let we know. I would love to attend something like this if possible. Also I was wondering if the Corps is ever planning to have any more Old Guard Musters? Again I would love to attend if this happens.

Well, enough of old war stories from the Buzzard, but if any more come to mind I will send them to you. Once a member of the Corps it never really goes out of your system.

Family Bible in the N.H.S.Archives; no date or publisher available, as introductory pp. are missing. Transcribed by Wm. Yeager in 1975.

inside front cover:

" The Family Bible.
This Book is all thats left me now,
Tears will unbidden start,
With faltering lips and throbbing brow,
I press it to my heart.
For many generations past,
Here is the family tree,
My Mothers hand this Bible clasped
She dying gave it to me.

Second Verse

My Mother read this Holy Book,
To Brother, Sister dear,
How calm was my poor Mothers look who learned gods word to fear
And think of what these pages read in tones my heart would thrill
though they are with the silent dead
Dear they living still.

Written by memory by A.D.Teeple,
Oct. 18, 1831. "
